Notes for Guidance when completing A Statutory Declaration

The form is to be completed by the person making the declaration and they should provide their full name and address at the space provided. The current Grave Owners' details and the grave number will then need to be completed.

The next section is left blank for you to:

- State what your intentions are, for example, to request ownership of the said Plot.
- Provide an explanation of the circumstances leading to this Declaration being made; for example, if the Executor has since passed away or if there was a Will but it did not go to Probate then you could refer to the Will and attach it accordingly.
- Clarify what your relationship is to the Grave Grant Owner.
- Explain why you have the right to hold the Exclusive Right of Burial. Are you the legal next of kin? Do you have any siblings?
- To confirm that other family members do not wish to hold the Exclusive Rights of Burial and so you have attached completed Form of Renunciation to the Statutory Declaration which you declare to be genuine.

This Declaration is to be made before a Magistrate, a Solicitor, a Notary Public, a Justice of the Peace or a Commissioner for Oaths.
